4 Musical Instrument Insurance – NOT INCLUDED

World Projects takes care to coordinate with airlines and ground transport to assure their proper handling of musical instruments, but does not assume liability for damage to instruments that may occur during a group tour. We recommend that instrument owners establish coverage under an existing personal property insurance policy. Or, instrument owners may want to contact a company that specializes in musical instrument insurance such as Clarion Insurance at www.clarionins.com or Music Pro Insurance at www.musicproinsurance.com.
